

31 Oct 1982
Floyd Kinsey, Heber, uprooted his garden. Under one potato plant Kinsey found three potatoes. Total weight of the three was 10 pounds. "That's enough potatoes to feed a family," Kinsey remarked.

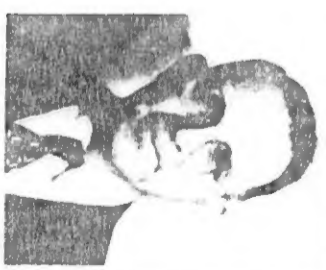

James F. Kinsey

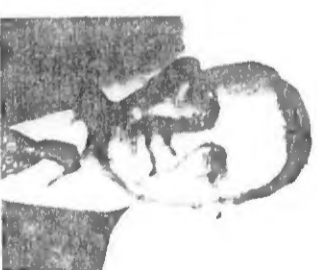

HEBER CITY-James Floyd Kinsey, 82, died March 1, 1985 in a Heber City hospital. Born August 1, 1902 in Park City, Utah to James and Margaret Shelton Kinsey. Married Viola Giles July 30, 1931 in Nephi; solemnized in the Salt Lake LDS Temple June 10, 1932. She died Dec. 15, 1971. Active member LDS Church; served in the Heber 2nd Ward bishopric and as Wasatch Stake clerk. Employed by Utah State Road Department for 36 years. Loved gardening and actively involved in genealogy.
7 Mar 1985

Survived by daughters, Mrs. Larry (Joan) Duke, Heber City; Mrs. Bert (Margaret Gaye) Webster, Twin Falls, Idaho; eight grandchildren, seven great grandchildren; brother, Alvin Kinsey, Kayaville. Funeral service, Monday March 4, 1985 Heber 4th Ward Chapel. Burial Midway Cemetery.

Floyd Kinsey

Floyd Kinsey

Serving as the fifth president of Wasatch Stake was Henry Clay Cummings. Counsellors to him were Don Clyde, Nephi Probst and Vellay Young. Floyd Kinsey was the stake clerk.